

Here is our daughter, Deborah, running the GO WILHD Ministries' booth. She was a great help at the CHEC Conference in Denver last month.

The Trailblazer

In This Issue:

- God Supplies the Need!!!
- CHEC Conference Beneficial to GO WILHD's Mission
- Father Son Relationship at the Center of the Universe
- Family Discipleship Planning Guides now Available
- Majestic VBS Ropes 180 Children & 100 Volunteers

Important Dates:

- *July 4 - Lead Worship/ Preach @ Calvary Church—Pueblo
- *July 4-19 Kenya Mission Trip
- *July 25 - Preach @ Calvary Church - Pueblo
- *August 1 - Preach @ Calvary Church - Pueblo
- *August 8—Begin disciple training at Lynn Gardens Baptist Church

PRAYER REQUESTS

- For favor and opportunity to spread the Kingdom in Kenya
- For safety for our families while we are gone
- For discernment, wisdom, and boldness in teaching God's Word while in Kenya
- For support to stay steady throughout summer
- For Sheri's and baby's health during pregnancy

God Supplies the Need!!!

We all know that God provides. It is His father nature that reaches out to us and blesses us time and time again even when we don't deserve it. However, as humans it is our tendency to forget what God has done or to at least believe that the current situation we are facing is different from the ones we have faced before and therefore we are unsure if God will come through this time. That is where I have been this last month.

As a person with a reasonable amount of faith you would think it would be no problem for me to trust God to provide. After all, He has provided for my family the last six months (not to mention our whole lives) as we have stepped out in faith to start GO WILHD Ministries. Right? Well, this last month has been tight. Giving was down for the month and funds for the Kenya trip had stopped coming in. Our first garage sale had gotten rained out and I was beginning to wonder if God was going to come through this time. I began wondering if I was really supposed to go on this trip. Was this trip simply my plan and therefore God was not going to bless it?

Well, we decided to do the garage sale again. This time God really blessed and we raised $650. That left only $350 to raise.

The next day at my home church, Majestic Baptist Church, I made an announcement about the details of the trip, thanked the people for donating items for the garage sale and let them know to be in prayer about the $350 that I had left to raise. My prayer was almost immediately answered. By the end of the service I had the money I needed to go.

What was even more amazing was that Pastor Scott is going through a series on the names of God and the message last Sunday was on "El Roi, The God Who Sees Me." God knew that last Sunday I would be at Majestic and he saw me at my point of need. He saw my family and their needs. He knew exactly what was needed for the Kenya trip. He confirmed His love to me that day through the music, message, and His people. Praise God!!!!

CHEC Conference Beneficial to GO WILHD's Mission

Sheri and I recently returned from the CHEC homeschool conference in Denver. We go every year to hear great speakers that inspire us to keep discipling our children and to look at curriculum for the upcoming school year. This year we also hosted a ministry booth in the vendor hall to raise awareness about GO WILHD and to sell some of our products. It was a very beneficial time of networking with other ministries, meeting lots of new people, and selling some books. It also caused me to think about how GO WILHD could help families as well as churches.

Deborah and Isaiah went with us this year. It was Isaiah's first year at the conference. He and a friend of his, Nick Mantei, went in together to start a business they call, The Forge. It is a jewelry and armor production company that makes products out of chainmail.

They did quite well at the conference. They learned a lot too. They are already looking for other events at which to sell as well as developing their own website.

I am very proud of Isaiah. He is growing into a fine young man. He is developing the traits of industry, responsibility, and perseverance.

Father Son Relationship at the Center of the Universe

From the Dept. of Health and Human Services come these statistics:

"41% of children born in the United States are born without fathers,"

"The family with both a mom and dad living together in the home has dipped below 50% in America."

Is that possible? Can it be true? How did we get here? Where are we going to end up? The fact is we are living in a country where the very fabric of society is unraveling at a terrific rate. We seem to be on a fatal crash course that we cannot get off of. Without a supernatural intervention from God Almighty we will eventually implode. Society will not be able to withstand the entitlements, welfare, crime rate, and debt that we place on it. The system will brake.

We can react in one of two ways. We can become depressed and fatalistic believing we are living in the last days and sit around and wait for Jesus to come back or we can seize the urgency of the moment to witness to as many people as possible, train as many fathers and mothers as possible, and help revive as many churches as possible because the days are short. We do not know when He will return.

While I do not pretend to have all the answers to our present predicament, I do know that fatherhood is at the center of both the problem and the solution. Fathers train up men. Without fathers boys will remain boys. We now have an entire society where 90% of our adult males are not men. They are boys who are maturing later and later because of how much time they are spending playing video games. Who will call them out? Who will train them to be men?

C.S. Lewis once said, "Fatherhood must be at the core of the universe." He wisely understood that the Father Son relationship that brought everything in the universe into existence is the One that we must be reconciled to in order that we may know how to be fathers ourselves and raise up godly offspring (Mal. 2:15). Without fathers and husbands at home, more women and children begin relying on the government instead of God to take care of them.

This will continue to lead us to elect leaders who promise the moon, grab power, and then shackle us with debt and regulation in the name of looking out for our best interest. Our forefathers knew that only an independent, responsible, armed, informed, citizenry with strength of character and principles would be able to withstand the oppressive power of government. God help us to be the fathers we need to be and train up a new army of fathers who will stand in the gap for their families!

FAMILY DISCIPLESHIP PLANNING GUIDE NOW ON SALE!!!

For only $6 you can put into motion a vision that will impact generations to come!

Pastor Tim takes you through Deuteronomy 6:1-9 to help you discover God's plan for your family. Go to www.gowilhd.com and buy yours today!

Ways to Give

If you would like to give to the Lord through Tim's ministry or mission trip please select from the following options:

Make checks out to: NAMB and write in the memo: acct# 9422 and mail to:

North American Mission Board
Attn: Accounting - MSC
P.O. Box 116543, Atlanta, GA 30368-6543

Or simply visit www.gowilhd.com and go to the support page. Click on Give to GO WILHD then click on www.namb.net/givemsc.

Majestic VBS Ropes 180 Children and 100 Volunteers

Howdy Ya'll!!! This is Sheriff Sheri reporting that Majestic Baptist Church had an exciting week of VBS as we lived and breathed Saddle Ridge Ranch June 14-18. Over 100 volunteers served this year and we ministered to over 180 children. There were at least 7 decisions for Christ and many more children and adults whose hearts were touched by VBS. Deborah and I (Sheri) were on the music team with Chas Bailey, Jen Lakes, and Rhea Olivares. We had a great time leading songs in the opening session and teaching music classes to different grades during rotation time. There were some great songs this year that helped the kids know that God made them and He has plans for them. All of the songs had motions and it was a joy to help the kids learn God's truths in song and action. The song we taught on Wednesday was possibly the most exciting one of the week "Tumbleweed." This song was a lot of fun as we taught kids the ABC's of becoming a Christian and saw the connection between being a tumbleweed- dried up, fried up, and petrified (those that don't have God's love inside) and those that become a Christian when God's love changes them on the inside. We even did some great country dance moves to it and some cool tumbleweed poses!! Of course living in Pueblo West we know all about tumbleweeds!

We enjoyed making a difference in the kids' lives as we taught them about God's love through music. - Sheri

